Euro-Med Monitor's 7th anniversary

#EuroMed7years

Richard Falk

Chairman of Board of Trustees of Euro-Mediterranean Human Rights
Monitor

I'm very impressed by the work that young men and women of the Euro-Med Monitor do under these difficult circumstances. It is important to continue the struggle despite frustrations and disappointment based on ultimate faith in the triumph of justice.

Dr. Rami Abdo

Founder and former president of the Euro-Mediterranean Human Rights Monitor

The idea of the Euro-Mediterranean Human Rights Monitor began with an unshakable belief in the need for meaningful and solemn work for human rights in the MENA region. Since its establishment, the Euro-Med Monitor has been concerned with serving just causes of the region, not the politicians and the financiers wishes. We continued strongly to advance despite the obstacles of accusation, distortion, restriction and the confiscation of freedom.

Ihsan Adel

chairman of the Euro-Mediterranean Human Rights Monitor

Euro-Mediterranean Human Rights Monitor Speech

As we celebrate the 7th anniversary of the Euro-Med Monitor, we believe more and more in this work that we are leading, not only to improve the human rights situation in the MENA region, but also to raise people's awareness and enable them to claim their rights, help victims to see those who are responsible of the violations against them accountable to the international justice system, and to continue this trend until the policy of impunity in this world completely stopped.

On this day, I would like to thank the 70 stars of the Euro-Med Monitor team in more than 20 countries. Not only those who work with us today, but all those who have worked with us or supported our work over the past 7 years. This is for the thousands of victims whose stories we have heard and have documented violations against them, to the hundreds of learners and trainees who have benefited from our courses in all areas of our work, and to all those who pursue our work with passion and interest wherever they are in this world. Thank you. We won't disappoint those who trust us; those who trust in HUMAN.

Euro-Mediterranean Human Rights Monitor's Projects and Activities

Euro-Med Monitor launched this program in August 2016, with the goal of integrating the youth in the human rights and humanitarian work.

In order to implement the project, Euro-Med Monitor followed the training-instructive model, where participants are first trained, and then paired with international experts to guide, instruct, and encourage them to use the needed skills to employ mechanisms of human rights advocacy. The project is currently being implemented in Jordan, Libya, Palestine, and will be in Algeria soon.

The Training-Instruction Program

Aiming at integrating the youth in human rights advocacy, Euro-Med Monitor launched in September 2016 the Summer School on Armed Conflict and Human Rights project, which is implemented in a different country every year.

The project has been targeting law students and alumni in the Middle East and North Africa in general, and in conflict zones, such as Syria, Yemen, the Palestinian territories, and Libya, in particular.

and Activities

Euro-Med Monitor launched a project in partnership with the German Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung Foundation in early April 2018 ,with the goal of providing the necessary legal awareness workshops for Jordanian youth on labor legislation in the country.

The project, which is implemented in partnership with six public and private universities, is focused on raising awareness of the legislation governing work in the private sector, and on teaching the legal and practical steps before the youth can start their own business ventures or start-ups.

Documenting Cases Of Torture

#EuroMed7Years

Together with the Center for International Humanitarian Law in Libya for International Humanitarian Law in Libya, Euro-Med Monitor launched a project for documenting cases of torture, with the goal of creating a database for the victims who have been subjected to torture by the parties to the conflict in Libya over the last 7 years.
